In 1979, several faculty, alumni and friends of the Jordan College of Agricultural Sciences and Technology had a million-dollar idea - to start a foundation that would benefit, promote and support the college and its programs. The supporters set out to raise $1 million in endowed scholarships and grants. Today the Ag One Endowment Fund is comprised of over 80 named funds totaling approximately $14 million.

One of the programs that has contributed to this success is the Community Salute. Since 1987, the Community Salute has honored extraordinary individuals for their devoted service to California agriculture and food systems industries as well as unwavering commitment to our community. We are delighted to honor Mr. Ed Baloian in 2010. Proceeds will establish the Ag One - Ed Baloian endowment to support deserving students and/or programs in the Jordan College of Agricultural Sciences and Technology.

Over the years, donors, board members and volunteers have made it possible to award some 3,100 students with over $2.1 million in scholarships and grants. For the current academic year, Ag One will provide approximately $220,000 to deserving students and programs.
